On June 17th 2017 at 11:16 AM, the City of Columbus was hosting one of the largest LGBT Pride festivals in the country with thousands of citizens from all over the country in attendance. At the time listed above the festival's parade was in progress with hundreds of uniformed peace officers providing security and traffic control. At the time listed above near the intersection of W. Broad St. and Front St. what appeared to be a group of 15-20 individuals entered the roadway with the purpose of stopping the parade by standing near the middle of the street and interlocking arms. Responding Officers while wearing the Columbus Division of Police Bike Uniform entered the roadway and requested the suspects to exit the road way.

The suspects refused to exit the road way and Officers attempted to escort the suspects from the roadway. Two suspects refused to exit the roadway and were identified as the primary aggressor. One of the suspects violently pulled away from Officer Hilgenberg #2653 causing Officer Hilgenberg to use an arm bar takedown toward the pavement. The suspect continued resisting Officer Hilgenberg and during the course of the brief physical encounter the suspect and Officer Hilgenberg forcefully fell to the pavement causing a injury to Officer Hilgenberg's left knee. A Officer in Trouble call was aired over the Police Radio and several Officer's responded to Officer Hilgenberg's call for assistance. Upon response from additional Officers the suspect was taken into custody without further incident.

Once in custody Officers identified the suspect who caused physical harm to Officer Hilgenberg as Ashley Nicole Braxton via her Ohio Driver's License. The second suspect was identified via OHLEG as Micah Jones, whom is a male in the transition process to be a female that would like to be identified as Wriply Bennett.

Officer Hilgenberg was transported to the hospital by Columbus Division of Fire Medic #8 with a bloody left knee that hurt so severely that he was unable to walk. The suspects were transported to Columbus Division of Police 8/16 substation by Columbus Division of Police Wagon #38 to process arrest paperwork. The suspects were transported to the Columbus Division of Police Identification Bureau and slated in the Franklin County Jail. The suspects were charged with Resisting Arrest "Physical Harm to a Peace Officer", Disorderly Conduct, and Fail to Comply.

On June 17th 2017 at 11:16 AM, the City of Columbus was hosting one of the largest LGBT Pride festivals in the country with thousands of citizens from all over the country in attendance. At the time listed above the festival's parade was in progress with hundreds of uniformed peace officers providing security and traffic control. At the time listed above near the intersection of W. Broad St. and Front St. what appeared to be a group of 15-20 individuals entered the roadway with the purpose of stopping the parade by standing near the middle of the street and interlocking arms. Uniformed Peace Officers and a SWAT over-watch Officers observed the imminent parade disruption. Responding Officers while wearing the Columbus Division of Police Bike Uniform entered the roadway and requested the suspects to exit the road way. The suspects refused to exit the road way and Officers attempted to escort the suspects from the roadway. Two suspects refused to exit the roadway and were identified as the primary aggressor. One of the suspects violently pulled away from Officer Hilgenberg #2653 causing Officer Hilgenberg to use an arm bar takedown toward the pavement. The suspect continued resisting Officer Hilgenberg and during the course of the brief physical encounter the suspect and Officer Hilgenberg forcefully fell to the pavement causing a injury to Officer Hilgenberg's left knee. A Officer in Trouble call was aired over the Police Radio and several Officer's responded to Officer Hilgenberg's call for assistance. Upon response from additional Officers the suspect was taken into custody without further incident. Once in custody Officers identified the suspect who caused physical harm to Officer Hilgenberg as Ashley Nicole Braxton via her Ohio Driver's License. The second suspect was identified via OHLEG as Micah Jones, whom is a male in the transition process to be a female that would like to be identified as Wriply Bennett. Officer Hilgenberg was transported to the hospital by Columbus Division of Fire Medic #8 with a bloody left knee that hurt so severally that he was unable to walk. The suspects were transported to Columbus Division of Police 8/16 substation by Columbus Division of Police Wagon #38 to process arrest paperwork. The suspects were transported to the Columbus Division of Police Identification Bureau and slated in the Franklin County Jail. The suspects were charged with Resisting Arrest "Physical Harm to a Peace Officer", Disorderly Conduct, and Fail to Comply. The reporting Officer respectfully requests high bond and special consideration to this case due to the severe level of disruption to Pride Festival and the potential embarrassment suffered to our entire city. Handcuffs gapped and double locked Y - Yes            Signature of Officer Completing Form [Signature]

COLUMBUS DIVISION OF POLICE
INVESTIGATIVE SUBDIVISION
CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION SUMMARY

On June 17, 2017 Columbus Police Officer Kelly Shay, #1796, was working a uniformed bicycle assignment at the Columbus Pride festival and parade. At approximately 11:00 a.m., Officer Shay, Officer Hilgenberg, #2653, Sgt. R. Brooks, #5185, and additional officers stopped to address a group of protesters that had moved too far onto the street in front of City Hall (90 W. Broad Street). This group was compliant with the officers' directions. Suddenly a group of different protesters emerged from the crowd and walked into the street. These protesters joined arms and blocked the parade. Officer Shay and the other bicycle officers formed a bike barricade and ordered the protesters to get back. Officers attempted to arrest a male protester (Micah Jones M/B/28) when a heavy set female black (Ashley Barton F/B/27) forced her way through the bike barricade and knocked Officer Shay to the ground. Officer Shay got back to her feet and assisted in taking the female into custody (reference report #170514254). At this time a male black, later identified as Deandre A. Miles M/B/21 CPD ID#59300C, jumped onto Officer Shay's back. Deandre Miles grabbed ahold of Officer Shays' holstered firearm, tugged and twisted it in an attempt to take it out of her holster. Officer Shay immediately reached for her gun and holster to secure it. She felt the protective lid was down and unsecured. Deandre Miles was then pulled off of Officer Shay by several officers at scene. Deandre Miles fled on foot and was apprehended a short time later in the area of W. Gay St and N. Wall St. Robbery Detective Brad Thomas, #794, was notified of the incident.

Officer J. Gortz, #2591, observed Deandre Miles jump on Officer Shay and reach at her waist band. Officer Gortz assisted in removing Deandre Miles off of Officer Shay. Officer Gortz provided a statement (Informational Summary #1).

Officer J. Sandford, #961, was assigned to a sniper over watch position on the roof of the Huntington Plaza building located at 37 W. Broad Street. He observed the incident involving the protesters and bike officers. Officer Sandford observed Deandre Miles dive head first onto the officers and pull on an officer. He also observed an officer grab Miles and pull him off the officers. Deandre Miles then kicked his legs repeatedly toward an officer's head, chest and shoulder area. Deandre Miles was able to separate from officers and flee on foot. Officer Sandford provided a statement (Informational Summary #2).

Deandre Miles was transported to Columbus Police Headquarters and processed through the Identification Bureau.

Detective Thomas met with Officer Shay and directed her to complete a written statement of the incident (Informational Summary #3).

Detective Thomas photographed Officer Shay in her uniform of the day. Officer Shay did sustain minor injuries (cuts, abrasions) to her lower legs during the incident.

It should be noted Officer Hilgenberg sustained a knee/leg injury during the incident and was transported to Grant Hospital.

The incident was documented under Offense Report #173008065.

At approximately 12:46 p.m., Detective Thomas attempted to conduct a digitally recorded interview of Deandre Miles. Mr. Miles advised he was able to read and write, wears glasses sometimes, and was not under the influence of alcohol or drugs. He advised he was not taking any type of medications. After being shown and read his constitutional rights Mr. Miles declined to make a statement and requested an attorney (see DVD).

Deandre Miles was charged with Aggravated Robbery, transported and slated at the Franklin County Jail.

Detective Thomas requested and obtained a copy of outside video surveillance from Columbus City Hall (90 W. Broad Street).

Copies of Officer worn body-camera footage were requested and obtained.

It is respectfully requested that the Franklin County Grand Jury indict Deandre A. Miles on one count of Aggravated Robbery, 2911.01(B-1) ORC, a felony of the first degree, and any/all other charges deemed appropriate.

Sir,

On June 15, 2017, at approximately 1:00PM a group of about 15 protesters gather outside of police headquarters on the south east corner of W. Long Street and Marconi Blvd. The group was an off shoot of L.G.B.T.Q. affiliated with Black Lives Matter. The group was there to protest police presence at the PRIDE festival. The group demanded that no plain clothes offices be allowed at the event and that we have a very small police presence. The news media was present and the Division P.I.O. gave a statement.

At approximately 1:15PM the protesters gathered outside police headquarters. We had seven Officers and I stage just inside the northwest entrance to headquarters in case the group tried to enter the building or attempted to disrupt traffic.

At approximately 2:10PM the group after speaking to the media that was at scene left without incident.

No arrests were made and no injuries were reporter.

I completed the P-1 report, (170507080).

Respectfully submitted,

Sergeant Christopher Capretta #5248, S7A, R.C.O.

614Unity and the People's Justice Project held a protest in front of the courthouse to protest the arrest of four individuals during the Pride Festival. The crowd swelled to approximately 75 people. The crowd marked an area off on the sidewalk and they stayed within the marked area during their protest. The area they marked off allowed for the free flow of pedestrian traffic. The crowd chanted using a bullhorn and held signs demanding the release of Deandre (one of the arrestees). No issues or violations of law.
